

WISS

WOOLBROKERS

The National Council of Wool Selling Brokers, of which we are a member, celebrated their 100 year anniversary this year. A small wool sale was conducted in the old Wool exchange building in King Street (now the Australian institute of Music), followed by a cocktail reception to mark the occasion. A great effort by all those involved and certainly demonstrated what a wonderful industry we work in.

